Sailing on a catamaran is a must do activity while in Mauritius. The island is surrounded by kilometres of coral reefs, making sailing a pleasant and enjoyable experience.

The cruise to Ilot Gabriel is simply spectacular as you sail in the open sea past the majestic Coin de Mire, an inaccessible island that rises 100m above the sea level. The sheer cliff is home to a large population of 'Paille-en-Queue', the long-tailed tropical bird, also the emblem of our national carrier.

The boat finally anchors in the crystal lagoon of Ilot Gabriel; where swimming and snorkeling is just a bliss.

09:30 The cruise departs from Sunset Boulevard jetty in Grand Bay. After leaving the bay, the sails are raised and the skippers direct the course towards the majestic rock of Coin de Mire (Gunners Coin).

12:00 Past Coin de Mire, the boat anchors in the lagoon of Ilot Gabriel, where the lagoon is crystal clear and ideal for swimming and snorkelling. In the meantime, the crew prepares a BBQ lunch, which is served on board. Drinks are inclusive throughout the day.

14:00 In the early afternoon, the boat sets sail back to Grand Bay.

16:00 There is time for shopping at Sunset Boulevard if participants would like to browse around the numerous boutiques before taking the coach transfer back to the hotel.
